Launched—not lunched—the day by exchanging opinions with Hube Bown about the tire business, how it was going to get better—we hoped, prices stabilized, and then when we had everything right to the point where the profit appeared, in busted George McConnell. Then we were off tires and on the horses. "Mac" had just returned from Santa Barbara where he and the horses had appeared in the Spanish fiesta.

The lunch which did not appear during the Bown-McConnell interview arrived a few hours later when Dr. Olewiler expressed a willingness to part with the price of the noon meal. Doc is getting the photographs and the baggage and travelers checks assembled so he can start for France next month. He found out from my neighbor, A. J. Lasby, who has just returned from a world tour, that the price of a good 35 cent meal in Paris is $1.50. During the World War Doc was "in the navy then." This time he wants to see the country.

Stopped at the bank to deposit some money with Wahoo Swanson. He took it and then began telling me how good his new car was, how poor some others were, and said he was willing to contribute toward a new one, but the offer wasn't made until after my money had passed over the counter.

Noticed that "stop for pedestrian" sign at Fifth and Main still means nothing to the average motorist. It should be changed to caveat emptor—cross at your own risk.

As soon as they put a $10 fine on boulevard stops you'll see more people put on the brakes.

Going to change the place where I buy my morning coffee. John Miller always has the morning paper.

Paul Plavan turned over his new coupe. Bean prices better be good this year.

Understand the President signed a bill requiring that prices on all nationally advertised articles be sold at the advertised price, and not cut below that figure. This is serious, as there are very few merchants left who could stand the shock of receiving a full profit on the articles they sell.

Maybe a green pair of pants are no warmer than some other color. Carl Edgar prefers the Emerald shade. Perhaps it's just the habit of putting the heat on.

Understand the police and firemen have over 8000 names on their civil service petition. The boys are circulating these petitions on their off duty days, so those people who have it figured out that the city is paying for the expense of circulating the petitions can start figuring all over again. If they are successful in getting the required number of names, the fire men will try and arrange for their services, and petition for bigger and better business.

This is Dad's week for a vacation. Having somewhat of an intimate knowledge as to his daily itinerary, I am sure he is entitled to what little rest he will get or take out of it. He hasn't any patience or respect for the age limit. If you think he is hesitating, jaunt around town every day with him.

The hitch-hiking nuisance is with us again this summer. It is not only an impediment to traffic, but a highway danger. Why not an ordinance against hitch-hiking within the city limits?

Overheard a conversation about the American Legion Bugle and Drum corps, and the reason why the Santa Ana organization came in fifth at the Stockton state convention. It was so much the competition as it was "the horns of San Gabriel." Max Gowdy thinks if Santa Ana had C bugles the result would have been different. So I hope next year they have D, G, and C bugles. I've noticed for the past few years that anything along the line of alphabetical agencies gets the money.

UNION OPENS DRIVE ON HENRY FORD

$400,000 'War Chest' Raised by Workers

MILWAUKEE, (AP)—The United Automobile Workers of America mapped a "vigorous and continuous" campaign today to organize the 125,000 Ford Motor Co. employees, and pledged a $400,000 war chest to finance it.

Whipped to an enthusiastic peak by the leadership and peace-making influence of their dynamic C.I.O. chief, John L. Lewis, the U.A.W. convention delegates prepared the machinery for a drive against the "only outstanding automobile corporation that has not been unionized."

In a resolution, the convention pledged "full financial and moral support" of the union to the campaign in order that the U.A.W. "will be able to sign an agreement with the Ford Motor company by the first of the year."

The resolution, adopted by a standing vote which developed into a demonstration, authorized a $1-a-member special assessment.

In Detroit, Harry Bennett, personnel director for the Ford Motor Co. and spokesman for Henry Ford, said the company "never will" make an agreement with the U.A.W.

BANDIT DIES IN L. A. BATTLE

LOS ANGELES, (AP)—In an exchange of gunfire on a busy street here today an unidentified robber was killed, two others, including Peter Borisoff, a jeweler, were wounded.

Police said Borisoff was the intended victim of a holdup. He was taken to a hospital in critical condition with a bullet wound in his head and leg. The wounded companion of the dead man escaped before police arrived.

Lives of many shoppers were endangered as Borisoff pursued the pair with a gun, answering their fusillade with deadly aim. Witnesses said the escaped man appeared to be badly wounded and in immediate teletype message was sent to all hospitals in an effort to locate him.

'Poor' Peddler Leaves $59,908

NEW YORK, (AP)—"Poor Mr. Hassett."

So neighbors sympathized when 70-year-old Christopher Hassett, fish peddler and one-time ball player, died last Dec. 24. He had lived for years in a $2 a week furnished attic.

His estate today was estimated at $59,908 in a tax appraisal in surrogate court.

Law Clamps Down On Walkathon

Sheriff Logan Jackson "cracked down" today on a walkathon contest at Seal Beach, issuing orders for closing of the show immediately. "If the police there fail to close it," the sheriff said, "my deputies will." Jackson's action was taken after officials had been informed by The Journal of a state law prohibiting human endurance contests.

The Seal Beach Walkathon opened last Thursday night, after operators assertedly had paid a $500 license fee to the city of Seal Beach. At first it was believed legal, since a county ordinance against such shows covers only the unincorporated area. But today it was revealed in state law has been on the books since 1935, expressly prohibiting endurance contests and prohibiting a $500 fine or six-month jail sentence for both operators and participants.

Deputy Sheriff G. F. McKelvey was dispatched to the beach city this afternoon, with orders from his chief to inform Seal Beach police of the law. If police refuse to close the show immediately, Jackson said, McKelvey was instructed to close it himself.

Chief of Police Lee Howard of Seal Beach said the council has given the walkathon operators a license, and they are operating under a city ordinance. He said they are running only 20 hours a day, and that it is his understanding that if they do not exceed this number of hours they are conforming to the state law. He said if Sheriff Jackson wants to close the place, "Let him come and do it."

Pacifists Picket Japanese Embassy

This group of demonstrators, representing the American League Against War and Fascism, stood opposite the Japanese embassy in Washington, D. C., in protest of the undeclared war. One placard-bearer who crossed to the embassy side of the street was hustled back by police.

GEN. FRANCO CLAIMS BIG VICTORY

Three Battalions of Royalists Wiped Out

HENDAYE, Franco - Spanish Frontier. (AP)—Spanish insurgents reported today they had "destroyed" three battalions of government troops attacking their concentration at Zaragoza, strategic intersection of lines between government - controlled Madrid, Valencia and Barcelona and the insurgents' latest prize of war, Santander on the Bay of Biscay.

Generalissimo Francisco Franco, in a communique, asserted his insurgent defenders of the old capital of Aragon, now one of his most important bases, had repulsed all enemy attacks. The enemy, he said, had left 12,000 dead in Zuera, a few miles to the north.

The government, however, reported that in a day of active fighting with warplanes and artillery taking terrific toll of enemy ranks, government troops occupied Zuera, Puebla De Albornoz and other enemy fortified positions in a great enveloping movement on the Aragon front.

WERNERS IN JAIL AGAIN

LOS ANGELES, (AP)—Mrs. Helen M. Werner, Tennessee-born mountain girl whose once mighty political power in California earned her the title of "Queen Helen," and her husband, Erwin P. (Pete) Werner, former Los Angeles city attorney, were behind jail bars today—charged with attempting to solicit a bribe and attempted grand theft.

Several weeks ago, Williams said, McNeil was charged with grand theft in connection with his promotion of a smelter company in Kern county. The investigator said McNeil declared he had been informed the case could be fixed by payment of $10,000.

Army Of Knife Experts To 'Whack Heads' Next Monday In Beet Harvest

Off with their heads!

Armed with vicious, long-bladed and curved knives, gangs of roughly attired men will move down through Orange county, starting Monday, whacking off heads right and left and piling them in neat heaps.

Monday the annual sugar beet harvest will begin, and the first job is to whack off the beet tops so that the beets can be sent to the Holly Sugar company factory just below Santa Ana.

Launching of the sugar beet season will give work starting Monday to more than 500 men in the field. About an equal number will get work in the factory itself when it starts processing operations the following Saturday.

The campaign will be shorter than normal this year, running

WAVES TOT TO SAVE TRAIN

BULLS GAP, Tenn. (AP)—An unidentified woman flagged a Southern railway freight train here with her baby and prevented the engine from crashing into a boulder.

Engineer Felix Plummer said today he saw the woman standing on the track, frantically waving the baby up and down in her arms. He applied the brakes.

Around the mountainside the train crew found a huge boulder on the track. In the excitement the woman walked away.

EVANGELIST HELD FOR KILLING

Seeks Solace After Attack on Bride

LINDEN, N. J. (AP)—A gangling itinerant preacher sought "consolation" today, Prosecutor Abe J. David said, in a well-worn Bible stained with the blood of the evangelist wife he confessed slaying with a mason's hammer because she threatened to leave him.

MARRIED IN L. A. Lloyd Pusey, 44, described as a former farmer and tavern singer in New Jersey, told of a month-long political quarrel with the woman, the former Mary Cannon, also 44, was preaching, the reported confession said, and all was serene until Pusey learned soon after leaving Los Angeles May 17 that his wife had been married four times previously.

FEAR IMPERIAL WATER FAMINE

EL CENTRO, (AP)—Farmers of the rich Imperial Valley were under orders today to irrigate their lands thoroughly before next Thursday, the day union canal workers across the border in Mexico threatened a strike.

M. J. Down, general manager of the Imperial Irrigation district, issued the warning, declaring that "if the strike goes through, we'll have to shut off the water at the river intake."

NAZI-VATICAN PEACE SEEN

BERLIN, (AP)—Rumors of peace negotiations between Adolf Hitler and Vatican found partial confirmation today in the authoritative information that the Papal nuncio, Mgr. Cesare Orsenigo, has conferred at the foreign office with State Secretary Hans Von Mackensen.

This visit assumed an aura of much importance in official quarters. It was the first of its kind since diplomatic relations between the Vatican and Nazi Germany reached a so-called "frozen" state on June 1 because of the German reaction to a speech by George, Cardinal Mundelein of Chicago.

100 DIE IN RIVER HONGKONG, (AP)—More than 100 persons were reported today to have drowned when a motorboat, overcrowded, capsized in the swift Yuling Ho river in southwestern Kwangtung province.

TRAGEDY ENDS ILL-FATED CAR JOURNEY

Aged Kentuckian Dies When Hit by Auto

Bad luck and his grim ally, Death, today had brought a tragic climax to the ill-fated vacation trip of A. R. Shepherd. The 71-year-old Kentucky tourist was killed instantly last night when he was walking across the Coast highway, 100 feet north of the San Clemente city limits.

The aged vacationist was struck down by a car driven by James Napier Gilmore, 44, of 3429 Linda Vista Terrace, Los Angeles, a highway patrol report said. Mr. Shepherd died instantly.

Intrigued by the beauty of the shimmering ocean at night, the elderly man was heading across the road toward the sea when death in the form of a speeding automobile came suddenly upon him, according to reports. His body was mangled by the terrific impact of the automobile.

Immediately after the accident, Gilmore drove to the side of the road to park his car. It was reported, and no sooner had he done this than a car driven by Albert Henry Brown, 30, of 9536 Ocean Gale, Inglewood, crashed into the rear end of the Gilmore auto. No one was hurt.

Shepherd, with his family, had just arrived from Bakersfield and set up camp near the highway. Only a few days ago, the tourists had an accident in San Francisco which cost them all the money they had planned for their vacation for repair of their old car.

MONEY GONE

When they arrived in San Clemente, they were broke. The rest of the family now is staying at a camp in Doheny Park until after the inquest, which probably will be held Tuesday, it was reported. The body of Mr. Shepherd was taken to the Diven Funeral home in San Clemente.

Mr. Shepherd is survived by his wife, Bessie Shepherd, a son, Gilbert, 24, and his wife, Ida, 30; and two other sons, Charles, 16, and Walker, 9.

EARLY MORNING CRASH

In another accident, which took place early this morning, John H. Simpson, 25, of 3104 Ocean Front, Newport Beach, was injured when his car was struck by a machine driven by Albert Schrott, 55, of 315 East Canille street, Santa Ana, it was reported. The accident took place at Sixteenth and Santa Ana streets, Costa Mesa.

Simpson was taken to St. Joseph's hospital, where he is under treatment. No broken bones have been found, hospital attaches said.

Rats Play Tag On S. A. Streets

Rats are taking over the city. They are following the trend of the times, and are organizing for a concentrated drive to secure better food, less hours for work and more for play, and complete protection from lean, hungry cats.

They don't have to worry about poison and traps any more. Their worst enemies, men, have stopped bothering them. So now they have had time to organize to round out their lives with full benefits of social and economic security.

SWARM INTO ALLEY

Last night, for example, the janitor of the Commercial building watched with awe-stricken eyes as scores of huge rats held a convention in the alley between Main and Sycamore streets. He watched them listen to the squealing language of a leader, then scatter to the four corners of the city to carry out orders for preying upon the food and goods of man.

Some of them, however, had a night off from work. They gathered in considerable numbers at the corner of Fifth and Broadway to enter with abandon and utter disregard for the presence of men, into a series of complicated games, which seemed to amuse them very much.

PLAY LEAP FROG

Jack Baer, automobile salesman, watched the rats at play for some time. They flicked onto the sidewalk, and immediately started chasing each other, playing leap frog, tag and all sorts of games. They paid no attention to inter-

Americans Flee As 200 Die In Attack By Japan Squadron

By MORRIS J. HARRIS
SHANGHAI, (AP)—Sixteen Japanese planes poured bombs into the narrow, densely-peopled streets of the Chinese Nantao quarter of Shanghai today to kill 200 helpless, screaming natives and wound 400 more. Apparently there was no military objective to account for the holocaust.

It brought to nearly 6000 the known casualties among the non-combatants of this great city in 15 days of awful warfare.

Nobody knows how many more have been killed or wounded and their fate never reported.

One hundred and sixty Americans, fleeing up the Whangpoo by tender to the Dollar Liner President Lincoln, saw a furious battle between Chinese land forces and Japanese planes.

CHINESE VICTORY
The result was a decisive Chinese victory. Two Japanese bombers, flaming, fell into the Whangpoo.

As on the other evacuation trips which have carried 2000 American refugees to safety since the battle of Shanghai began, bits of sharpnel and stray bullets from both sides sprinkled the Lincoln's super-structure.

No one was hurt, however.

Late today, in angry reprisal for the Nantao bombing at the very edge of the French concession, Chinese cannon shelled Japanese Honkew, which lies at the north of International Shanghai. Numerous casualties were reported as the shells burst near the Japanese police station and along Boone and Miller roads.

MANY CREMATED

Fire started in Nantao by the Japanese bombs burned many Chinese to death. They brought back the heart of Shanghai the devastation of modern warfare, which had shifted away from the centering of the infantry-artillery battlefield at a point 12 miles northwest of Shanghai, about Wo'sung, where the great Yangtze River meets Shanghai's waterway, the Whangpoo.

There was no convincing guarantee of lessened hostilities here, however, and American marines sped work of strengthening defense works about the international sector over which they maintain guard.

Thousands of sangbar barricades were thrown up to form a triple defense line, and machine guns and small armaments were in position for instant action to defend the settlement.

British, French and other foreign guard detachments likewise continued to strengthen their fronts.

Nantao is the native quarter of Shanghai's southern fringe, adjacent to the French concession, in which most American residents of Shanghai live.

About 2500 Americans remain in Shanghai, 700 of them women and children. Most of the others (Continued on Page 2, Column 2)

I'll Tell You

By BOB BURNS

I don't suppose anybody has ever questioned the old saying that honesty is the best policy but if you do feel that you just have to tell a little lie, make it as short as possible. Either say "Yes" or "No" and let it go at that because if you try to prove you're right you'll get to tickling and first thing you know, you'll get yourself all tangled up and you'll wind up by hangin' yourself.

I remember one time when the preacher called on Uncle Hod and during the conversation the preacher happened to ask Uncle Hod if he had ever read the Bible. Uncle Hod spoke up real quick and says, "Sure, I read it every day." The preacher smiled and probably believed him, but Uncle Hod wasn't satisfied. He called to his wife and says, "Maw, bring me that Bible down here."

When Aunt Sophie finally found the Bible and brought it to Uncle Hod and he sat there, thumbin' through the pages and he told the preacher "Yes Sir, they ain't a day goes by I don't read this Good Book." Finally, he turned a page and picked out a piece of cardboard and stared at it and he holloed to Aunt Sophie, "Maw, here's that picture of your Aunt Dutty that we've been lookin' for for the past ten years!" Townsend
News,
ViewsBy
WALTER R.
ROBB

Santa Ana Club No. 3 was successful in having a fine time at its ice cream party held Thursday evening in Townsend hall. The Hurd-Lentz orchestra put liveliness into the occasion with a concert. Afterwards, beginning at 7:30, a regular Townsend meeting was conducted by Phillip S. Doolittle, president. Speaker was John Jennings of Los Angeles, who was introduced by Dr. U. G. Little. Some 250 Townsends were present.

The speaker was both humorous and informative in the message delivered. He told of the advances made in the last half-century in the fields of invention and science but deprecated the fact that with all such additional knowledge economically the nation dragged along in the same old inefficient methods of distribution of produced wealth. This he amply illustrated could very well be corrected almost overnight by the adoption of the Townsend plan money circulating method.

He gave special emphasis to amendment of the United States Constitution method now in progress in the Townsend movement as would assuredly bring about the adoption of the Townsend plan by the nation. Through our own state legislatures, he pointed out, there would be opportunity of greater influence being wrought because of a closer to home center of operations.

The speaker told of the benefits which would accrue to the churches from a financial support standpoint when the plan was adopted. He was rather critical of ministers of churches who preached of ministering to the needs of the poor and then stayed aloof from the Townsend movement. He also suggested that business men who today would not help with their influence to further the movement's would be among the first to benefit from the plan when in operation. Briefly but effectively he outlined the improvements in business volume which would result and the general reduction of unemployment which would take place. He was in good favor with his audience from start to close as the frequent and hearty applause made plain.

Mrs. Ota A. Everett, president of Fullerton Club No. 1 announces another pot-luck dinner in America park on West Commonwealth street Monday evening at 6:30 o'clock. She will conduct a regular Townsend meeting beginning at 7:30 and promises that a speaker will be present.

Mrs. A. F. Hibbet, corresponding secretary of the Tustin branch, will inform this column as to her club's activities in plenty of time for announcement. She writes that last Monday evening the meeting was devoted to plans for furnishing and decorating the new meeting place at the corner of Second and B streets. The meeting will be held in the social hall of the Presbyterian church. A. E. Thomas, president, will be in charge.

It will be pleasing news to the many Townsend friends of Mrs. W. H. Matthews, 1321 Cypress street, Santa Ana, that after six weeks of illness she has now sufficiently improved to again receive visitors for brief periods only. Mrs. Matthews and her husband are dependable members of Club No. 2 of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Miller, 1247 Fifth street, Santa Ana returned from a four weeks' visit with their son and family in Waterloo, Ia., their old home. They are very active members of Club No. 2 of this city.

Pope R. Long, president of Santa Ana Club No. 2 announces a meeting for Monday evening at 7:30 in Townsend hall, 509 West fourth street. Counselman Plummer Bruns has promised to speak.

Among those doing jury service in Santa Ana is Mr. A. Ziegler, member of the Garden Grove club which meets each Monday evening at 7:30 in the American Legion hall on Euclid avenue.

Santa Ana Club No. 1 which met last Thursday evening in the Roosevelt school had A. M. Maps as its speaker. Israel Santee, president introduced Maps. A splendid time is reported.

Orange Club No. 1 will meet next Monday evening at 7:15 in the Townsend Club building at 149 South Glassell street with J. A. Green in the chair.

WATER STRIKE DANGER IS
EXPLAINEDSecretary Hull Looks
Into Imperial Crisis

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The state department said today Secretary Hull personally is studying protests from California's Imperial Valley to see what, if any, action can be taken to avert a threatened labor strike in Mexico which might interrupt water service through the international canal.

City and county governments and civic organizations of the Imperial Valley region protested to the department yesterday through Phil D. Swing, representing the Imperial Irrigation District and other groups.

Commissioner John C. Page of the reclamation bureau expressed concern over the consequences of an interruption in the flow of water through the canal.

Other bureau officials recalled that in 1934 when the Colorado river, source of domestic and irrigating water for both sides of the international border, went dry for two weeks, Imperial Valley farmers suffered nearly $10,000,000 in crop losses. They said an interruption now for a like period might result in similar damages.

INCOME TAX PAYMENTS TO BE EASIER

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The treasury approved today simplified income tax return forms designed to make it easier for the rich, the poor and the in-betweeners to pay Uncle Sam what they owe him.

The new form for individuals is dressed up in larger, clearer type. It has more and bigger white spaces for the taxpayer to jot in such items as "earned income credit." And it permits the individual to keep his salary a secret from everyone except the internal revenue bureau.

Drafted after months of consultation by treasury experts, the new forms will be distributed early in January—two and a half months before the March 15 income tax deadline.

Officials said they were hopeful the simplified forms would encourage earlier payment of taxes, reducing the last-minute flood of returns on March 15.

Sixty per cent of taxpayers have incomes of less than $5000 and, in the past, they will have a special group of questions which may have confused them in previous years, such as detailed queries as to ownership of securities.

The space on the old forms for reporting capital gains or rentals has been eliminated. Taxpayers with less than $5000 income who have capital gains or rentals will use a more detailed form.

On the new returns, the affidavit sworn to by the taxpayer will be switched from the first to the last page. Thus if an individual does not let the notary public thumb through his return, he can keep the amount of his salary secret.

THREAT OF R. R.
STRIKE WANES

CHICAGO, (AP)—A threatened strike of 350,000 workers who operate the nation's trains faded today as federal mediators tackled the job of settling a wage dispute.

The strike threat was precipitated when the railroad union of 66 major railroads rejected the demands of the "big five" railroad brotherhoods for a 20 per cent wage increase.

An offer by the national mediation board to seek a compromise was accepted by both sides yesterday, thus forestalling a strike in the immediate future.

A nationwide walkout of conductors, engineers, switchmen, trainmen and firemen was still a possibility although the agreement to accept federal mediation precluded such action for 30 days or more.

Scottsboro Case
Plea Is Denied

DECATUR, Ala. (AP)—A motion for a new trial for three of the five negroes under sentence in the "Scottsboro" case was denied today by Judge W. W. Callahan.

The jurist said that at the end of the series of trials here in July when four of the nine original defendants were freed, there was "an ironclad agreement between Atlanta and San JOAQUIN VALLEYS—Fair tonight and Sunday; little change in temperature; gentle variable wind."

Defense counsel already has indicated it will take the famous case on a third trip to the United States supreme court.

New trials had been sought for Norris, Any Wright, under 99-year sentence, and Charlie Weems, given 75 years. All were convicted of rape.

NEPHEW MAY FOLLOW MELLON

PITTSBURGH, (AP)—Financial circles forecast today that Richard King Mellon would soon take up the sceptre of the world-wide financial dynasty dropped by his uncle, Andrew W. Mellon.

The 38-year-old hard-ridden financier, rather than Mellon's scholarly son, Paul, they said, would succeed the late financier, statesman as director of the half-billion dollar Mellon enterprises.

The horseman known to intimates as "Dick" and "R. K." has held the titular reins of the empire since 1934 when he succeeded his late father, Richard B. Mellon, as president of the Mellon National Bank.

Paul, only son of the former secretary of the treasury, has also entered upon a financial career but friends say it is a career only by adoption and that his real interests are in literature.

Andrew W. Mellon's death Thursday night in Southampton, N. Y., removed the last of eight brothers and sisters.

In direct contrast to his uncle, who was slender, frail and shy, "Dick" is a strapping six footer and a good mixer.

MOURN DEATH OF AVIATRIX

PRESIDIO, Tex. (AP)—Flyers over the nation today mourned the death of Mrs. Genevieve Savage, Coronado, Calif., aviatrix, whose brilliant career as an organizer and racer ended when her plane hurtled into a mountainside west of the Rio Grande near here yesterday.

Removal of the crushed body to Texas awaited completion of an official Mexican inquiry and instructions from her husband, Major E. M. Savage, U. S. A., of San Diego.

Mrs. Savage was en route from California to the Cleveland air races. She stopped in El Paso over night and took off for Dallas yesterday. El Paso air field officials expressed the opinion she had gotten lost. Mexican officials said the crash might have been due to engine trouble.

Insurance Case
Decision Seen

SAN FRANCISCO, (AP)—Federal judge yesterday took under submission several days before he would make known his decision in the latest phase of the legal battle over reorganization of the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Co. of California.

After two days of argument, the judge yesterday took under submission the petition of a stockholder, Mrs. Fannie R. Hutchins of San Antonio, Tex., for permission to amend a previous complaint.

The action, in effect, is an effort to obtain a review in federal court of a suit to invalidate the state-approved reorganization plan.

Speed Charges

Two persons yesterday were booked at the county jail on speeding charges. Lawrence H. McIntyre, 33, 515 East Chetrea, Anaheim, was booked to serve five days, but is free today on a $100 appeal bond posted yesterday.

2500 ATTEND ANNUAL BREA BARBECUE

Lions, Legion, Sponsor Civic Party in Park

BREA.—The City of Brea last night held open house to the community and to neighboring cities when members of the American Legion and of the Lions club of the city had their third annual party for all groups at the Brea Municipal park.

The program included, first, the serving, free, of more than 2500 barbecued dinners to guests. The park was brilliantly lighted for the occasion, and guests gathered under these lights about a grand stand, where the musical program was presented.

The first unit of the new Brea band made its debut; Leland Auer conducted, and was assisted by Eugene Foster, Burton Nelson and Kenneth Hogue in the instrumental numbers. Three sisters, Bernice, Marilyn and Louise Heinze, sang and presented tap dances, and the ranch boys from Curry's camp at Camp Baldy entertained.

Joe Witten was general chairman of the affair. He was assisted by L. A. Hogue, Carl Harvey and Corb Sarchet, representing the Lions club, and Roy Nelson, George Gesse, T. P. Wallace and the Rev. E. Lange of the Legion.

Boy scouts of the community assisted in serving, while Archie Raitt, who prepared the 3000 pounds of barbecued meat, was assisted by many at the long tables where food was served.

Children of the community enjoyed the plunge, as guests of the community.

SEEKS RETURN OF YOUNG SON

Tangled marital affairs of Mr. and Mrs. Herman E. Milbrat, members of a prominent Santa Ana family, were being aired in the courts today.

Mrs. Marguerite Milbrat was denied her application for a writ of habeas corpus and possession of three-year-old Edith LaMaie Milbrat, now in custody of the father. At the same time the father filed suit against Mrs. Milbrat for divorce and named Orville Dye of Denver as co-respondent, charging Dye is the father of a son assertedly born to Mrs. Milbrat July 5 in Los Angeles.

Superior Judge James L. Allen sustained Milbrat's demand to his wife's application for custody of the daughter after showing she gave the child to him last April and had made no demand for her return.

His divorce complaint alleges the couple were married in Los Angeles, Sept. 2, 1932, and separated last April 27 in Santa Ana, where he says the daughter was given into his custody by his wife.

ODDS and ENDS

By PAUL WRIGHT

Santa Ana's struggling Stars LOST yet WON in that double-header to clear the National Nightball league playoff muddle before one of the best crowds of the season at the Sixth and Flower street stadium last night.

Manager "Doc" Smith's Smithies lost to Anaheim, 5 to 4, but the defeat lowered them from third to fourth place, and greatly ENHANCED their play-off chances because they now draw San Bernardino instead of Huntington Beach in the first four-out-of-seven game series.

Anaheim, by gaining third place, must play the 1st club, Huntington Beach, in the first round.

Pitching will be Santa Ana's big problem. Can Jack Dugan, the righthander with the injured knee, carry the load for the Stars against San Bernardino's crack pair, Manager Venn Botts and Bob (Lefty) Fowler? Can the Stars so juggle their lineup to make their hits produce more runs?

Genial Francis Penhall of Westminster's last-place Aviators sizes up the Santa Ana club in one sentence: "Those Stars get MORE hits and LESS runs than any team I've ever seen."

San Jose State will profit by the graduation of two crack members of Santa Ana Jaycees' Southern California championship football squad. Hal Mosiman, small but scrappy running guard, and Fred Lentz, fine-blocking halfback, have sent their credentials to the California college, and will enroll next week. Mosiman played guard under Dick Glover at Anaheim High. Lentz received his prep school experience under Stewart White at Orange High.

Tragedy hit the football ranks of Long Beach Poly yesterday, removing one of Coach Orian Landreth's finest ends, Willie Curry, 17. Curry, son of one of Poly's old-time gridgers, was killed in a ship-yard explosion.

Did you know that an amateur boxer cannot hold a boxing club responsible for injuries suffered in a contest promoted by the club? Attorney General U. S. Webb has handed down the ruling.

Webb stated, however, that the club might be held responsible if the injury resulted from defective equipment.

FARR FLOORED IN WORKOUT

Jim Braddock Slated To Fight Max Baer In New York Oct. 29

NEW YORK (AP)—It seems virtually everyone in the fight business has been very busy except the gentlemen in the box offices who'll take your money if you want to see Joe Louis fight Tommy Farr Monday.

Continued dreary weather yesterday did little if anything to improve the advance sale for the championship bout that was postponed last Thursday. Promoter Mike Jacobs, who has been consulting almanacs, weather prophets and probably his own wishes, waxed jubilant over the prospects, however, predicting fair weather Monday and a $400,000 gate.

"The weather will be swell. We checked the winds for a thousand miles," Mike insisted. Then he went on to explain that there already was $152,000 in the till, good bunches of tickets out on consignments and $50,000 coming from the radio rights. That made more than $200,000 already assured, according to Mike's figuring and the sunny weather he was looking for today and Monday would bring the late customers trooping around.

MAX ADELBERT BAER Faces Test In October

The real business was conducted elsewhere, as the fighters returned to action in their New Jersey camps and the fight mob gathered around the Hippodrome to talk things over.

The day's principal excitement came from a report from Long Branch that Farr had been knocked flat by one of his sparring partners, Abe Feldman. Tommy and his handlers insisted he had only slipped, regardless of other versions. Jacobs said it was all good for the gate, and that was that.

Joe Gould, manager of ex-champion Jimmy Braddock, dropped in with the information that Jimmy definitely was slated to tackle Max Baer at Madison Square Garden Oct. 29 and that he was dicker for a bout with Farr, win or lose, in London in November.

Jack Kearns, one-time manager of Jack Dempsey, who now is a Detroit promoter, arrived with his newest heavyweight, Jimmy Adcock, seeking a bout with Max Schmeling. Kearns offered the German $100,000 or 40 per cent of the gate to fight Adcock at Detroit in September or October. He didn't get an immediate answer.

Frankhouse Enters Hall of Fame

HURLS NO-HIT, NO-RUN TILT FOR DODGERS

Brooklyn Nine Shuts Out Cincinnati, 5-0; Yanks Win Again, 4-3

By SID FEDER

Associated Press Sports Writer

Like an accident going some place, or a guy falling off his horse, you never can tell what spot fame will pick out to land on.

That's not taking any of the credit from Curveballer Freddy Frankhouse for the no-hit, no-run game by which he checked his hat in the hall of fame yesterday. But, rated off the record, Freddy, who has kicked around the National league for 11 seasons without causing any wholesale gnashing of teeth on the part of rival batters, would certainly not be one of the 10 or 20 pitchers you'd name as most likely to turn the trick. And particularly since he's working for the Brooklyn Dodgers.

AN UP-AND-DOWNER

The same thing applied to Bill Dietrich when he did it for the White Sox against the St. Louis Browns back on June 1, or to any number of the fingers who have broken into the charmed circle. A lot of them didn't figure to come within a country mile of the stunt. Like Dietrich and Frankhouse, they were largely up-and-downers.

Yet, there it is in the record books today: Thirty-three-year-old Fred Frankhouse, with a record of 102 victories and 77 losses in tossing for the Cards, Bees and Brooklyn since 1927, receives credit for a no-hit, no-run game. He walked six, and a seventh man drew a life on an error as he did the job against the Cincinnati Reds by a 5-0 margin.

To be sure, it was somewhat of a side-door entrance to the hall of fame, since the game was halted by rain with two men out in the eighth inning, but it's a regulation ball game nevertheless, and the stunt stands.

Frankhouse's feat took a chunk of the spotlight away from the National league fight, which seems to be going a long way and rapidly getting nowhere.

PHILS DRIB CARDS

With the league-leading Cubs idle in Boston because of rain, the second-place Giants had a neat chance to close some of that two-game gap in their double bill with their former star, the Pittsburgh Pirates. But the best Bill Terry's Terriers could do was split even, thereby leaving things strictly as they were.

Dutch Brandt and Mace Brown of the Bucks teamed up in a four-hitter to take the opener 1-0, after which lefty Al Smith surprised by a 3-2 Giant win in the nightcap.

The Phillies turned in the day's stunner when they pinned a double dose on the nose-diving Cardinals, 4-1 and 6-3, to climb into sixth place. It's been so long since they were there they didn't even know the old game.

The Yankees increased their American league lead to 11½ games with a 4-3 win over the Browns, largely through the clouting of Lou Gehrig. The second-place Tigers were mauled, 8-5, by the Red Sox, despite Rudy York's seventh homer in seven days.

Pete Appleton's three-hitter gave the Senators a 5-0 shutout over the White Sox.

Gehring Climbs Eight Points, But Medwick Slipping

NEW YORK (AP)—While Ducky Medwick remained in the batting doldrums, the pitching fraternity had a new worry this week in the sudden clouting bombardment currently being turned loose by Charley Gehring.

Medwick, although retaining the National league batting lead with a .393 mark, continued in his biggest slump of the year and fell off seven points more during the seven-day span ended with yesterday's game.

Gehring, on the other hand, began to look like the one American league leader who is going to make it stick. Junior loop pacesetters have come and gone all season, but Gehring, suddenly hitting his stride, not only retained the pace during the seven-day span, but by hitting 14-for-33 for the week and boosting his mark edge to 18 points over second place. The current runner-up was Lou Gehrig, with .368.

The day's principal excitement came from a report from Long Branch that Farr had been knocked flat by one of his sparring partners, Abe Feldman. Tommy and his handlers insisted he had only slipped, regardless of other versions. Jacobs said it was all good for the gate, and that was that.

Ex-Don Recovers

Bill Greschner, Santa Ana Jaycees' all-conference quarterback who was stricken ill in Berkeley Wednesday night, is recovering rapidly from an emergency operation, and will be able to leave the hospital next Tuesday. Greschner is up north to enroll at the University of California. His mother, Mrs. Belle Greschner of Santa Ana; and brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Curran of Santa Ana, are in Berkeley this week at Greschner's bedside.

TROJAN VAULT STAR HURT

TOKYO. (AP)—Winning all but two of the nine events, the United States gained a 47 to 37 lead over Japan today at the end of the first half of a two-day international track meet but lost the services of Earle Meadows, crack Southern California pole vaulter. Ten more events will close the program tomorrow.

Meadows, co-holder with his team-mate, Bill Sefton, of the unofficial world's record of 14 feet 11 inches, fell heavily during the pole vault and dislocated his shoulder. He probably will not be able to compete in any of the other events the American team has scheduled during its Japanese tour.

With Meadows unable to continue, the event was won by the Japanese ace, Sueso Oye at 4.30 meters, 14 feet 11 inches. Sefton gained second place at 4.20 meters, 13 feet, 9 1/2 inches, and Meadows third at 4.10 meters, 13 feet, 4 1/2 inches. Adachi of Japan was fourth.

Frederick's Big Bat Saves Sacs' Lead As Padres Lose

By the Associated Press

Johnny Frederick's big bat was one of the main reasons Sacramento's lead in the league's second-place game and a half in their Pacific Coast league leadership today.

The Portland first baseman, in a remarkable hitting exhibition, was a major factor in the 8 to 4 defeat of the league's second-place San Diego Padres yesterday.

While he was blasting the Padres into defeat in the south, Sacramento entertained the home town fans by pulling out with a 4 to 3 win over the Missions.

San Francisco's Seals moved up from the third-place standings tie with Los Angeles as they defeated Seattle 3 and 0 and the Angels lost to Oakland 7 to 4.

Frederick's great afternoon at the bat saw him collect five hits in five chances, including a homer and two doubles. Young Ted Williams poked out a homer for the Padres. Bill Radonits, Portland hurler, was credited with his 16th win of the season. Herman Pille was charged with the Padres' defeat.

Johnny Vergez drove out a homer for Sacramento as Tony Freitas of the Senators emerged victorious from a tight pitching duel with Lou Lesh of the Missions. Cooper's single in the ninth inning, driving in Williams and Prout, was the pay-off hit of the game.

Dominic DiMaggio, brother of the New York Yankees' famed Joe, tied in sacrifice fielding, hitting and running in the Seals' shutout triumph over Seattle. The youngest of the DiMaggio baseball tribe started a triple play in the first inning with a quick throw after catching Pool's fly. He scored two of the Seals' runs. Bill Shores hit the Indians to 7 against their hits while his mates were gathering 9 off Paul Gregory.

ORANGE GALLS HOST TO SAN DIEGO NINE

Lionettes, Cramers In Softball Feud At Orange Tonight

Two of the Southern California amateur tournament's strongest entries—the Orange Lionettes and the San Diego Cramers—will look up in a girls' softball attraction on the Orange city park grounds at 8:15 tonight. There will be a 15-cent admission.

The Cramers are champions of San Diego county, and are coming here to avenge a 7-2 defeat in a second game with Coach Alvin (Whitey) Edwards' Orange girls. The teams shared honors in the first game, 5-5, called after the ninth to permit San Diego to get an earlier start home.

The San Diego girls boast a brilliant record, with 37 wins in 47 starts against all kinds of competition. Mary Updegraff, the club's No. 1 hurler, will be sent to the "Blonde Bombshell," Lois Terry of the Lionettes.

Orange will field its customary strong lineup, with Melita Forster or Phyllis Tucker behind the plate, Ruth Lee at first, Pat Collins on second, Gertrude Amling at shortstop, Bobbie Wakeham on third, Phoebe Miller, Melba Estes and Betty Bickford in the outfield. Willie Potter, Mamie Bogette and Ruth Van Liew will be in reserve.

The San Diego girls are managed by Bill Ramage, brother of Lee Ramage, the boxer.

PICO, KUDO AND MARTINEZ TOP MAT CARD HERE

Two three-fall matches, one a mixed catch-as-catch-can and judo battle between Juan Quijuel-Pico and Kiman Kudo, held the center of the wrestling spotlight at the Orange County Athletic club Monday night.

Ignacio Martinez, 230-pound Mexican youth and Ironman Lou Miller met in the other feature. Martinez is out to win and regain his former standing and prestige.

Two matches over the one fall route, Vic Hill vs. Dick Lever and Count Del Kunkle vs. Young Stecher completes the program.

Angels Eye Neva

Louie (Neva) Novikoff, who gave up softball at Huntington Beach to become the leading hitter in the Western association with the Ponca City, Okla., nine, may graduate to the Los Angeles Angels of the Pacific Coast league at the end of the present season.

NEVA RETURNS TO ANGELS

Huntington Beach's Russian Receives New Trial in 1938

Louis (Neva) Novikoff, one time Huntington Beach Oiler in softball who has been leading the Western association at a .368 clip in hitting, in all probability will graduate from the Ponca City, Okla., nine to the Los Angeles club of the Pacific Coast league.

Leftfielder Neva has done so well under the management of Art Veltman at Ponca City that the Russian flycatcher is expected to make a place for himself with Manager "Truck" Hannah's Angels in spring training at Ontario, next year.

Neva's long-distance hitting should be a boon to Los Angeles' attack.

Joe Rodgers, Huntington Beach softball manager, predicts the rugged Neva has a major league career ahead of him. "I can't see how he can miss," says Rodgers.

Eddie Carmet, Ponca City pitcher who lives in Santa Ana during the summer, and Neva are among 11 players whom the Los Angeles Angels have recalled for the 1938 season. All of them, of course, will not make the grade.

Jack Lelivelt, scout for the Angels and the Chicago Cubs, looked over all the youngsters, and recommended they be brought back for another trial.

Playoffs Begin Monday Night

Valencias to Battle Huntington Beach There Tuesday Night

If all of their rivals were as contrary as San Bernardino, the Anaheim Valencias would get exactly nowhere in the National Nightball league.

Behind Ven Botts' five-hit pitching, San Bernardino stopped Anaheim, 3 to 2, for the sixth successive time here last night. The game was a replay of a protested contest which San Bernardino won 4-3 early in the season.

San Bernardino's Ponies, who open the Shaughnessy playoffs with Santa Ana at San Bernardino Monday, spotted Anaheim two runs in the first inning, but tied the count in the fifth and went on to win in the seventh—the last inning of the abbreviated contest, which was a featured part of a doubleheader also finding Anaheim winning from Santa Ana, 5 to 4, in the nightcap.

ANAHEIM SCORES FIRST

Clair (String) McDonnell, one-time ace of the Anaheim staff, pulled a fast one as manager of the Valencias. He started himself against San Bernardino, and saved Lyle Morse, his No. 1 gunner, for the most important game with Santa Ana. It developed that Mr. McDonnell was more effective than Mr. Morse on the mound, but String didn't know this when he planned his little strategy.

Anaheim started off with a characteristic spurge, with Cliff Edmondson singling and gaining third on Terry Griffith's fielder's choice and Shortstop Wayne Watson's error. Floyd Montgomery singled, scoring Edmondson, and Griffith raced home after a wild pitch.

San Bernardino came back with two away in the fifth. Rosy Gilhousen, the clowning outfielder, singled to center, and Dory Strain walked. Shortstop Watson lifted a Texas leaguer over first base, the ball dropping right on the sidelines and rolling to the east bleachers while both Gilhousen and Strain scampered home to knot the score. Botts' infield fly ended the rally.

WATSON IS HERO

The second-place Ponies pushed across their winning run in the seventh, when Gilhousen led off with an infield single. Strain singled to left field, planting Gilhousen on second, from where he scored on Watson's single to left.

Watson drove in all three San Bernardino runs.

Botts fanned five to McDonnell's three.

Santa Ana, the fourth-place club, figures to fare well against San Bernardino, the team the Stars have beaten three out of five. Manager "Doc" Smith's local lead, however, will assume the "underdog" role on San Bernardino's own grounds Monday night.

'SOULS AT SEA' OPENS SUNDAY

Broadway Also Will Show 'Talent Scout'

Picture's most famous soldier-of-fortune, Gary Cooper, comes to the screen again as an adventurer in what has been called the most powerful role of his distinguished career in "Souls at Sea," opening at the Broadway theater tomorrow with a second attraction, "Talent Scout."

Cooper plays the hero of a true story for the first time in his career in "Souls at Sea." He reenacts the role played in real life by "Nugget" Taylor, a sea captain of the 40's whose famous trial for manslaughter on the high seas is one of the ocean's most amazing and thrilling stories. He is supported by George Raft, Frances Dee, Henry Milcaxon, Harry Carey, Olympe Branda, Robert Cummings, Porter Hall and many other noted featured players.

Because of the paucity of lifeboats Taylor held a trial at sea while a burning ship was sinking, to determine who was to be permitted to escape into the lifeboats and who was to remain and go to the bottom with the ill-fated vessel. He included himself in the number assigned to the lifeboats, not, he pleaded later to the court, because he wanted to save his own life, but because somebody had to go along to navigate the boats and he was the only seaman in the lot. The story reaches a climax when the case reaches the jury.

The tribulations of an unusual profession form the basis of "Talent Scout." Donald Woods plays the title role. His job is to dig up talent for the movies, wherever he can find it. He finds a marvelous singer in the person of Jeanne Madden, who he discovers in a small town theater amateur night. He takes her to Hollywood, by trickery brings her to the attention of movie magnates, and launches her upon a lucrative career. Miss Madden recently played opposite Dick Powell in "Stage Struck," and she has a remarkable voice. Two other noted singers, Fred Lawrence and Rosalind Marquis, are featured. Short subjects include a cartoon in color and World News.

2 Comedies Will Be State Feature

Wednesday and Thursday the State theater will present two comedy-romances and a Pete Smith specialty. The two feature films are, "Men Are Not Gods," starring Miriam Hopkins and featuring Gertrude Lawrence, Sebastian Shaw, Rex Harrison and A. E. Matthews, together with "When Love Is Young," which features Virginia Bruce, Kent Taylor and Walter Brennan.

"Men Are Not Gods" is a modern story about a little London secretary who accidentally makes a handsome young actor who has never seen, the toast of London. An intensely jealous wife adds almost tragic complications.

"When Love Is Young," deals with an obscure country girl who, snubbed by classmates and ignored by the school hero she admires, accompanies her uncle to New York to study singing. There she meets a theatrical press agent whose exploits, for all their vitality, land her in jail, but eventually help her to musical comedy stardom. Returning to her home town she is disappointed in finding that the school hero she had looked forward to meeting again is merely a small town failure.

Broadway Books Powell Music Film

"Varsity Show," Warner Bros. film musical extraordinary, will have its local premiere at the Broadway theater on Sunday, Sept. 5, it was announced today by Manager Lester J. Fountain. Starring the ever-popular Dick Powell and introducing in grand manner to motion picture audiences, Fred Waring and his famous orchestra, the picture marks a new high in musical and comedy entertainment. Included in the cast are such players as Ted Healey, Lee Dixon, Priscilla Lane, Rosemary Lane and many others. Second feature on the program will be "One Mile from Heaven," a picture which depicts radically from the ordinary production, according to advance notices. It is a story of a newspaper woman who succeeds in proving that a negro is not the mother of a white child. Convicts, newspapermen, gangsters and blackmailers appear on the scene before Claire Trevor can prove the mother is Sally Blane. The cast includes the famous negro dancer, Bill Robinson and Douglas Fowley.

SONJA STARRED IN 'THIN ICE'

Beginning next Wednesday the West Coast theater will present "Thin Ice," starring the "One in a Million Girl" in a gay and magnificent musical, it was announced today by Manager Lester J. Fountain. Second film on the program will be "Hopalong Rides Again."

Sonja Henie, the "One in a Million" girl, is co-starring with Tyrone Power in "Thin Ice," a picture as thrilling to listen to as look at, according to advance notices. The cast includes Arthur Treacher, Raymond Walburn, Joan Davis, Sig Ruman, Alan Hale, Leah Ray, Melville Cooper, Maurice Cass and George Givot. Flaming action, breath-takingly beautiful scenic shots and a tender romance combine to make "Hopalong Rides Again" the finest of the popular series. The picture, latest in the series of Western thrillers from the pen of Clarence E. Mulford, has William Boyd playing his familiar part of Hopalong Cassidy, and George Hayes and Russell Hayden again cast as "Windy" and "Lucky" respectively.

NEWPORT-BALBOA.—Pier fishermen at Newport Beach are enjoying a huge run of mackerel. Some halibut and yellowfin croaker also have been caught off the pier. Spotfin croaker are keeping bay fishermen on the alert.

The swordfishing boats are out for the huge fish now in a big way. A well-equipped fleet of these boats operate here but are popular and reservations for a boat should be made in advance.

JACK BENNY AT STATE SUNDAY

The double feature program opening at the State theater tomorrow for three days, will feature Jack Benny, the comedy ruler of screen and air, in "It's in the Air," along with "Racketeers in Exile," which features George Bancroft. A newsreel will complete the bill which runs continuously Sunday starting at noon.

The thrilling plot of "It's in the Air," concerns Benny, a confidence man, and his side-kick, Ted Healy, who are on the run from a "G-Man," Nat Pendleton, because they have failed to turn in an income tax report, acting on the advice of a shyster lawyer. Healy hides at a desert resort and Benny follows later, meeting his estranged wife, Una Merkel, who left him five years before because of his shady business. Then the fun begins. Previous audiences have laughed so hard they have missed half the lines.

"Racketeers in Exile" centers around George Bancroft, as he portrays a minister's son who becomes a big-time racketeer and discovers that, as an orator, he can easily exploit the simple religious faith of his neighbors. Just as the long arm of Washington is closing in on him, Bancroft's character undergoes a complete change. Torn with remorse, he decides to reform, only to plunge himself and his companions into a new situation, with justice having its due in the surprising climax.

O'BRIEN DRAMA, AIR FILM END

"Windjammer," George O'Brien's latest starring picture, dealing with thrilling adventure in a trans-Pacific yacht race, a spectacular shipwreck and a run-in with munitions smugglers, shows for the last times tonight at the Broadway theater with a second feature, "Flight from Glory," powerful and dramatic air film.

In "Windjammer," O'Brien, as the ace assistant of the California state's attorney, is intrusted with the task of serving a multi-millionaire yachtsman with a subpoena. His efforts to get aboard the boat just leaving for Honolulu, and later to combat the smugglers who pick up the yacht party after a storm and shipwreck, make an exciting story.

One of the most spectacular scenes in "Windjammer" brings O'Brien and William Hall, who ensnare the leader of the smugglers, together in a terrific fight in the hold of the ship, loaded with munitions. The climax of the scene sees the boat, set afire by oil lanterns, blown to matchwood by an explosion. Constance Worth is featured.

There are plenty of thrilling sequences in "Flight from Glory," the story which is set in a little airfield in the Andes, where Oswald Stevens reigns as a cruel, money-mad air line head whose planes fly supplies from the coast to the mines. The cast includes Chester Morris, Wilfrid Brinley, Van Heflin and Pasha Kahn.

Selected short subjects on the program include the dramatic two-reel story of the United States constitution, "Servant of the People," a Betty Boop cartoon, and World News events.

HUNTINGTON BEACH.—Tom Rainey, an 18-year-old boy of Anaheim, caught a 200-pound black sea bass on the "Annie M. Rolph" barge this week. Then to finish off the day, he caught two nice tuna.

Barracuda, halibut and sea bass make up the average catches.

'Love Under Fire'

Pictured above are Loretta Young and dashing Don Ameche, idol of millions of radio fans, who are co-starring in the tempestuous romantic-drama, "Love Under Fire," now showing at the West Coast theater with "Wild and Woolly," fast-paced comedy with Jane Withers.

'Racketeers In Exile'

Above is a scene from "Racketeers in Exile" the companion feature to "It's in the Air," which features the well known radio comedian, Jack Benny. This program opens at the State theater Sunday for three days.

NEW WESTERN AT STATE

Again Bob Allen takes the part of a two-fisted, fast shootin' Texas Ranger. Single-handed he saves a ranch from a band of desperadoes and settles a family feud in "The Rangers Step In," which opens its first local showing Friday at the State theater. A Three Stooges Comedy entitled "Goofs and Sadies," a cartoon, "Porky's Super Playhouse," a newsreel and a chapter of "Jungle Jim" will round out the program.

A feud between two families, a dramatic fight for valuable railroad land, cattle rustling and the ever alert intervention of the courageous Texas Rangers, contribute knockout punches to the story. The family feud between the Allens and the Warrens becomes doubly tragic because of the romantic thread which links the hero, Allen, with Terry Warren, played by Eleanor Stewart, who is a member of the opposing family.

FOOTBALL STAR OUT OF PRISON

PENDLETON, Ind. (AP)—Virgil Kirkland of Gary, who has served more than six years at the Indiana reformatory in connection with the death of pretty Arlene Draves following a "prohibition era" party, was released today on parole.

Kirkland, former Gary High school football star, was released after the state welfare department in Indianapolis announced approval of the parole.

He had served more than five years over the minimum sentence imposed for the slaying. At the time of his conviction on a charge of assault and battery with intent to commit rape he received a sentence of one to 10 years.

AWARD WINNER AT WALKER'S

Continuing its policy of "bringing back" big pictures of the past few seasons, in preference to playing some inferior films of the current season, Walker's theater will show "It Happened One Night," starring Clark Gable and Claudette Colbert, on the week-end program, next Thursday, Friday and Saturday. "The Case of the Stuttering Bishop," an Erle Stanley Gardner thriller, which features Donald Woods and Ann Dvorak, will be the companion feature.

Honors were literally showered upon "It Happened One Night" by the Motion Picture Academy of Arts and Sciences. Clark Gable and Claudette Colbert, co-starring in the film, were selected as having given the best performances of the year. Frank Capra won first prize for his direction, and Robert Riskin took the top award for his adaptation of the story.

In "The Case of the Stuttering Bishop," Donald Woods plays the part of Perry Mason, debonaire lawyer-detective, and Ann Dvorak his quick-witted secretary, Della Street. They find themselves drawn into the baffling murder of a millionaire oil man, by a bishop who is anxious to see that justice is done in the matter of inheriting the oil man's wealth.

WILL ROGERS ON SCREEN HERE

Will Rogers found the perfect role in his greatest picture as the most lovable, laughable character in American fiction, "David Harum," being brought back to Walker's theater tomorrow on the same program with "Married Before Breakfast," a comedy romance which features Robert Young and Florence Rice. The latest issue of March of Time will complete the bill which runs until Wednesday, with continuous performances daily.

Offering the utmost latitude for the wit and wisdom of America's beloved humorist, the story of "David Harum" is an absorbing one of the thrilling romance between Evelyn Venable, rich heiress summering in the sleepy country town, and Kent Taylor, handsome but poor young protégé of banker Harum.

In "Married Before Breakfast" an electrical robot figures prominently in the story of a youthful inventor whose bad luck changes to good when he acquires the mechanical man. He is about to marry a society girl when he meets a lovely clerk in a travel agency. She also engaged and the inventor, played by Young, tries to sell an insurance policy to her sweetheart. In the ensuing complications, Young and Miss Rice are involved in a thrilling jewel robbery, arrested, kidnapped and finally vindicated, to discover that neither of them wants to marry anyone but the other.

The Spanish War and its value to U. S. military strategists as a testing laboratory for future warfare; the entrenchment of political patronage in the United States and the crusade to end the spoils system; and a revolutionary experiment in summer camping—these are the three engrossing subjects which the March of Time explores in its latest issue, which starts at Walker's theater Sunday.

Two New Features On Broadway Bill

Two newly released features, "Wine, Women and Horses," and "Make a Wish," will open at the Broadway theater next Thursday, it was announced today by Manager Lester J. Fountain.

"Wine, Women and Horses" is a human interest comedy drama. It tells the story of a race track gambler, who enjoys himself following the horses. This part is played by Barton MacLane, who is supported by Ann Sheridan, Dick Purcell and Peggy Bates. When the gambler meets a country girl, he falls in love and marries her. For a time he is content with a small job in a small town, but then, bitten by the gambling bug, he takes his wife to Santa Anita. Between coups at the track

YOUNG-AMECHE PLAY SHOWING

"Love Under Fire," co-starring captivating Loretta Young and handsome, dashing Don Ameche, is the current attraction at the West Coast theater, along with a second feature, "Wild and Woolly," starring mischievous Jane Withers.

Loretta Young and Don Ameche go romancing tempestuously in turbulent Spain in the fast-moving comedy-drama of romance, intrigue and mad adventure. Borrah Minevitch and his gang, harmonica wizards who scored heavily in "One in a Million," are featured with Frances Drake, Walter Catlett, John Carradine, Sig Ruman and Harold Huber in "Love Under Fire." Set against a background of warfare, the film is replete with fast and furious fun as Don and Loretta ignore the spatter of shells about them to spit and love in one of the foremost comedy photoplays of the year.

Concerned in the story is a frightened girl fleeing madly about Europe, seeking to evade capture for a crime she mistakenly believes she committed. A Scotland Yard detective pursues her as a criminal until he discovers certain facts which clear up matters. In endeavoring to escape from the war-torn city in which they find themselves, they are pursued by a foreign officer who is threatened with death by the firing squad unless he recovers valuable jewels Don and Loretta are supposed to have taken. From then on they are caught in a turmoil of exciting events.

"Wild and Woolly" is a rollicking comedy which also carries a load of fast-moving romance and drama. Besides Jane Withers the cast includes Walter Brennan, Pauline Moore, Carl "Alfalfa" Switzer, whose antics turn loose a belem of laughter, Jackie Searle, Bertion Churchill, Douglas Fowley, Robert Wilcox, Douglas Scott and Len Chaney Jr.

Short subjects include a Pete Smith sport subject, "On Ice"; an Our Gang comedy; a cartoon, and World News events.

and at dice and roulette, he comes into another fortune, but his wife leaves him. From that point the story builds up to a powerful climax.

"Make a Wish" was previewed before an appreciative audience at the Broadway theater last night. Bobby Bren's new musical starring vehicle brings not only the engaging boy lyric tenor in a characteristic Bobby Bren starring role, but also the polished Basil Rathbone and Marjorie Claire, NBC singing star, as the adult romantic principals of the story. In the lavish scenic production are featured such players as Henry Armetta, Ralph Forbes, Leon Errol, Donald Meek, Herbert Rawlinson and Leonid Kinskey.

SOCIETY CLUBS

Country Club Ends Summer Season

The final summer dancing party of the season was held last night at the Country club, with intimacy and informality as its keynote. Long organ, tulle, chiffon and gay printed frocks were much in evidence in the flower-decorated ballroom of the clubhouse, for the affair had been characterized as a "summer formal."

Acting as hosts and hostesses for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Duley Jeffries, and Mr. and Mrs. Rolla Hays, Jr. They were assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Riley Huber of the standing committee.

Among dinner and supper parties given before the dance was one at the clubhouse at which Mr. and Mrs. Dean Collier entertained a dozen couples. On their guest list were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Fernandez, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Langley, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Knox, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hockstrasser, Mr. and Mrs. Riley Huber, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Bemis, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Fletcher, Mr. and Mrs. Duley Jeffries, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ewert, Mr. and Mrs. Don Knapp, Miss Jimmie Plagg, and Mr. Masters.

Attending a supper party at the George Spielman home were Mr. and Mrs. George Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. Charles McDaniell, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Tarr, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Phil MacVicar, Mrs. Robert Guild and Dan E. Maloney Jr.

Announcement was made of the weekly buffet supper which will be held Sunday at from 5:30 on, with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Drumm and Mr. and Mrs. Don Jerome as hosts and hostesses.

HARVEY-WHITE NUPTIALS ARE PERFORMED

It was during lovely quiet rites in the First Congregational church last night that Miss Audrey Lavonne Harvey became the bride of J. Richard White before an altar banked with pink amaryllis and crepe myrtle.

The bride wore a starched lace gown of beige color with silver accessories and a corsage of gardenias and sweet peas. She was attended by Mrs. Marjorie Bernier of Garden Grove as matron of honor, wearing a tangerine after-noon dress.

Thomas Bernier acted as best man, and the ceremony was read by the Rev. Perry F. Schrock, pastor of the Congregational church. Music for the rites was played by Alan Revell at the piano, with Maurice Phillips singing "Oh Promise Me" and "Because."

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Q. Harvey, 105 Hickory street, the new bride is a graduate of Santa Ana High school and the Orange County Business college. She has been employed by the Home Oil company in Anaheim.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. White, 504 Halstead street, and is also a Santa Ana High school graduate. He is a member of the Native Sons and the local Motorcycle club and is employed at the Santa Ana Register.

Congratulations of the more than 100 guests were extended to the young couple before they left for a honeymoon at Arrowhead. They will make their home in Santa Ana upon their return.

HONOLULAN IS GIVEN BON VOYAGE PARTY

Mrs. Fred Merker was hostess this week at the final party feting Mrs. Richard Questad, popular summer visitor at the Paul Ragan home, who sailed Friday for her home in Honolulu.

The affair was really a bridge club meeting, but Mrs. Merker added an extra table to compliment Mrs. Questad. She took her guests to Daniger's for luncheon and bridge, and late in the afternoon awarded the club prize to Mrs. Paul Ragan, the guest prize to Mrs. Arthur Smith, and presented a pretty farewell gift to Mrs. Questad.

Present were Mrs. Ragan, Mrs. Questad, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Harold Nelson, Mrs. Harvey Spears, Mrs. Hubert Nall, Mrs. Roscoe Hewitt, Mrs. William Stauffer, Mrs. L. A. Dickey, Mrs. Carl Edgar, Mrs. Joe Daniger and Mrs. Harold Segerstrom.

BABY FETED AT BIRTHDAY PARTY

Baby Donna Gay Zaiser was the happy birthday celebrant this week when her mother and grandmother entertained at a gay little party on her second anniversary.

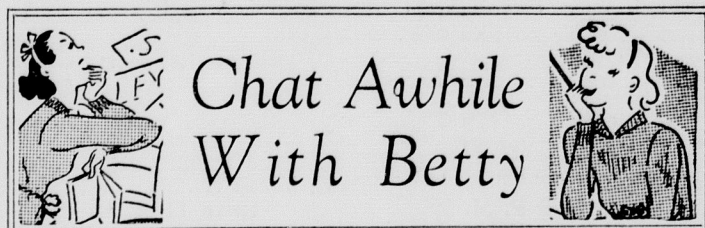

The baby shared honors with her great aunt, Miss Esther Zaiser, at an informal garden party, where a big cake and a tiny one, both decorated with small tapers, greeted the guests. Many gifts were presented to both honor guests.

Included in the group were the baby's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Tornquist of Fullerton and Mrs. Arthur Lyon, 926 Louise street, at whose home the party was given, the baby's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Don Zaiser, Miss Esther Zaiser, Miss Laura Zaiser, and Miss Mary Zaiser.

Louisianan's Bride

Mary Emil Majors surprised her many local friends this week when on a visit to Shreveport, La., she became Mrs. William King. Daughter of the Emil Majors, she will make her home in the southern city.

I'm stripped of ideas and a little bit dippy today after chatting last Tuesday with Gypsy Rose Lee.

My mind dwells with joy on the picture of mama, Traller, dachshunds, and lovebirds merged—comma—Or don't you think so?

She was really a nifty girl, though—and lots of fun. If she did bubble over so all and sundry folk could hear her—after all, it was her wedding day, and why not? Besides, it's all publicity.

And while dictionaries are being searched for word definitions, I'd suggest that someone investigate the meaning of "irony."

There are all sorts of rumors afloat about wedding bells that will ring out very unostentatiously in the near future for several folk—one ceremony that is predicted between a certain marrying parson and his assistant of the past year or so—one that will unite a certain ex-night-club divorcee and a Kentucky colonel, likewise divorced—and in quite a different category—one that will make a lady benedict of a certain bean rancher's red-haired daughter up San Francisco-way.

Question for the week: Who was the jolly lady in blue whose chair broke under her and sent her tumbling on the lawn at the St. Anne's Altar society party last week? She was charmingly good-natured about it.

And at the same affair was Mrs. Antoine Borchard bustling about helping people, with her pretty new daughter-in-law also much in evidence. The new Mrs. Vincent Borchard is a very attractive brunette—she and her husband are in residence at the Ebell apartments, I hear, pending the completion of the new home that is being built right next to that of the elder Borchards on their beautiful ranch property.

It was nice to see Hazel Stroschein up and about again, too, after her appendectomy. And everyone got a kick out of Stella Engelman arriving with her own big beach umbrella dragging under her arm. No sunburn for her!

The hostess, Mrs. Allen Mandy was in particularly festive mood. As she said, one really should be gay on the day that Life Begins. She was 40 years old and proud of it, as well she might be, with a handsome 21 year old son, and looking as youthful and vivacious as she does.

One of the most amusing incidents of the week occurred at the tea Mrs. L. H. Bradshaw gave for her new daughter, Mrs. Roch Bradshaw. She ushered two guests into the den, and started to introduce them to a little group of ladies—paused, as if she had momentarily forgotten their names—drew a big breath—and said, "May I present Mrs. Norton, Mrs. Norton, Mrs. Norton, Mrs. Norton, Mrs. Norton, Mrs. Norton, Mrs. Norton?"

The expressions on the newcomers' faces were really ludicrous, and it was awfully funny. It developed that the five Mrs. Nortons were Mrs. Francis Norton, Mrs. Stanley Norton and Mrs. Arold Norton, their mother-in-law, Mrs. P. H. Norton, and Mrs. P. H. Norton's mother-in-law, Mrs. G. E. Norton. Furthermore there were two other Nortons there! Only, fortunately, or unfortunately, their names are now different—Mrs. Alice Norton Peterson, and her sister, Mrs. Eleanor Norton Palmer (Betty Park's mother!).

I liked Mrs. Dixon Tubbs' idea of giving Spode teacups for prizes at her party this week—really lovely things to receive, and which everyone can use more of. Or, as she said thoughtfully—exchange easily!

The Elwood Bears have returned to normalcy after going around heart-broken for some three days. Their adored little curly dog, Fritz, walked out on them last Saturday night. It seems that the pup was born amid Fourth of July racket and poppings and what not, and is really shell-shocked. There were a lot of explosions Saturday, and the pooch became scared to death with no one at home, and just started running. A kind samaritan picked him up way out by Garden Grove, and kept him safe over the week-end—surer in fact than his master and mistress, who searched constantly for him.

Speaking of animals, little Dee Pettit, I hear, is working for Walt Disney, drawing funny beasts. It's quite an honor, for the noted cartoonist is muchly averse to petticoats around his factory.

The son and heir of the Henry Armstrongs of Panama, born at St. Joseph's hospital a week ago yesterday, has been named Derick Vincent, according to his very proud auntie, Mrs. Wilbur Barr. He and his mother and his older sister, three year old Jan, will stay on here until he's old enough to travel into the Zone.

And good news for all the friends of the former Maria Diehl, now Mrs. Kenneth Beer, is that it's almost certain that her husband will be transferred to the coast (probably to fly the flag, Clipper) and that she and the China Glippers here and there: Flustered "stags" at the country club last night doing their best to get rid of the lemons that are passed around at the tag dance. About half a dozen of these fruits are in circulation, and when the music stops, the men holding them have to ante up. Consequently, all the femmes seem terribly popular.

Among those dashing madly about were Duley Jeffries, Dean Collier, handsome Fay Hockstrasser, white-suited Riley Huber, Jerry Hays and Wendell Finley (who caused a certain lady in blue to "fall" for them), George Walker looking extremely sunburned after fishing all day at Catalina, Dick Ewert looking mostly for the love, Bob Fernandez doing his bit to keep things merry—everybody having loads of fun.

All the gals spent their time wondering who was a certain luscious blonde in a very decolette polka-dotted satin frock, and who, too, was a svelte red-head. Katherine McDaniell was blithe and debonair in her trim little sports outfit—Edna Miller looked very smart in a metallic blue-hued gown—and a newcomer named Ruth McVicar, very attractive, had a clever dress of green organdy with an organdy lei around the neck.

And someone mentioned that Gladys Bemis and On Swankie sisters! There certainly is a decided resemblance, and both are extremely vivacious.

Conspicuous among those absent were the Eddie Holmeses, usually the pillars of Country club affairs.

Had quite an interlude with Rolla Hays Jr. Jerry to everybody. It seems that way last spring, just after the military ball, I commented both on the air and in the chatter on what a charming picture he made dancing with his handsome, white-haired mother. They did make a picture, all right—but I learned to my embarrassment that it was not his mother! Apologies to Mrs. Frederick Dunstan!

All concluding news flash, chillun—Martin Elliott, former husband of Margaret Whitson, has it is rumored, entered double harness again! Of which more later.

See you next Saturday—and let's chat awhile Tuesday and Thursday at eleven thirty over KVOE. How's about it? —BETTY GUILD.

Mrs. Mayhill Blends Two Careers

By DR. MARY E. WRIGHT

Well-known throughout Orange county as one of the few women typesetters and art printing designers of the vicinity, Mrs. N. E. Mayhill has extended her fields of interest beyond the print shop and has been active in local social circles, as well as her own home life.

Mrs. Mayhill's first interest in the printing business was aroused when she married Mr. Mayhill 36 years ago while he was publishing a county weekly newspaper in Delphi, Ind. She has worked with him ever since that time, including the past 15 years that they have been at the same location in Santa Ana.

She early became Mr. Mayhill's chief assistant in job printing and her first work was with a hand press. With the appearance of modern equipment she learned to run a motor-driven press and has carried on successfully in the business many times during her husband's absences.

Mrs. Mayhill is well-known now for her clever business letter heads, wedding invitations, programs, and invitations. Probably her most outstanding work has been done on bookplates and original engravings for Christmas cards.

She has two charming daughters, Mrs. W. E. R. Crawford, former president of the district Parent-Teacher association, who now resides in Fontana, and Mrs. Robert Wilson of Santa Ana.

Other examples of the wide scope of this printer's interests are her lovely home at 1114 South Broadway, the ranch which she and Mr. Mayhill are developing at Fontana, and her activities in the Business and Professional Women's club, of which she is a past president.

Mrs. Mayhill is known as the only woman typesetter and art printing designer of Orange county, but competing for her prominent spot in the printing field is Mrs. Clara Matthews whose special interest is in bindery work.

The latter began her work in 1917 in Atascadero, but in 1924 came to Santa Ana where she and her husband owned a job shop for five years. Upon his death she became an independent printer.

Both women are outstanding examples of the unusual interests and talents of local women.

VISITS FRIEND IN SAN DIEGO

Mrs. J. Fred Reyser, 2324 North Broadway street, drove to San Diego yesterday to visit a friend, Mrs. E. E. Levenhagen, formerly of Denver, Colo., returning late yesterday evening.

She was accompanied on the trip and visit by Mrs. Rella Woodington of this city.

HELEN DENNIS HONORED BY LARGE GROUP

The evening was spent in informally chatting and opening the gifts of the bride-to-be. A dessert course was served late in the evening by the hostesses.

Miss Dennis will be married to Cecil Clark on September 10 during formal wedding ceremonies to be performed in the bride's home, 501 Wisteria place.

SURPRISE PARTY CLIMAXES DINNER

An intimate dinner party last night complimenting Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Tedford, was last night changed to a gay surprise party when a large group of friends and business associates called to pay their respects to the couple before they leave for an extended vacation trip.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Jones entertained Mr. and Mrs. Tedford at dinner in their home, 1135 South Barton street, on the eve of their departure. At the close of the meal, the group of callers arrived to present a travel kit and a travel book to the couple.

Refreshments were served at small tables late in the evening, decorated with modernistic centerpieces, following the playing of cootie. E. W. Ellis and Mrs. Helen Mabe won high prizes and E. Kimmel and Mrs. Tedford won low in the game. Mrs. Lena Smith was awarded the door prize.

Hearty Meals Encourage Appetites

By JUDITH WILSON

Here are hearty supper dishes for appetites that are restless at the time of the year. They are BAKED PORK CHOPS.

Have the pork chops cut thick, then trim them from their bones and trim off the extra fat. Sprinkle well with salt and pepper and place on a well-greased baking pan. Put into a hot oven and bake, basting frequently with melted fat and water until they are nearly done and brown on top. In the meantime make your favorite bread stuffing. Turn the pork chops and cover with the stuffing to about an inch thick. Return to the oven and continue baking until done—about one hour altogether. Serve with fried apple rings and a garnish of fried onions.

ROAST VEAL

Have the butcher cut a 3-pound rack of loin cut for you. Rub well with salt and pepper on all sides, then mix the following ingredients and rub them into and over the meat: 1/2 teaspoon powdered thyme, 1 teaspoon celery salt, 2 tablespoons finely minced parsley, 1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce and 1/2 cup tomato sauce. Put into a hot oven about 20 minutes, then reduce the heat and roast about an hour longer.

LAMB POKES

Mix 3/4 pound of ground lamb shoulder, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon thyme, 1/2 teaspoon pepper and 1/2 cup soft breadcrumbs lightly together. Melt 2 tablespoons fat, add the meat and stir constantly until light brown. Roll back into dough and cut into 4 rectangles, about 3 inches wide and 6 inches long. Place portions of the meat on one half of each rectangle of dough, fold over like a pocket, book and pinch the edges together. Cut a slash in the top and brush each "poke" with melted butter. Bake in a hot oven 20 minutes or until nicely brown. Serve with the following mushroom sauce:

Melt 1/2 tablespoon butter, blend in 1/2 tablespoon flour and add 1 can condensed mushroom soup and 1/2 cup water. Cook, stirring constantly, about 5 minutes or until smooth and thickened.

THORNE IN THE FLESH

By GLENN L. THORNE
Intemperance Is Condemned

We have been studying different phases of God's dealings with the national life of the Children of Israel in their journey from Egypt to the promised land of Canaan. In our studies, we have been endeavoring to apply lessons to our own nation, both as a unit, and as individuals. The people of Israel are still camped at Sinai. Our lesson today, a temperance lesson, deals with the liquor problem from the social standpoint, then and now.

The question is often asked why we should take time out to review the liquor situation when everyone knows the evils of strong drink whether or not they are abstainers. The answer is just the same as for other everyday happenings. We become so accustomed to seeing headlines of death caused by speed, that they lose their terror and tragic meaning. We become so used to the daily effects of liquor, that we are apt to forget its curses. It is well to pause occasionally and look over the passing parade of life.

The liquor business has well been called public enemy number one. When we pause to consider the toll of lives and property damage each year—to say nothing of other effects caused by the demon alcohol—we see why it has been called our foremost public enemy.

In Leviticus 10, we read of the liquor situation bobbing up among the Israelites just after the completion of the tabernacle of which we learned last week. Aaron was the high priest, and Nadab and Abihu were two of his sons who were priests and did service in the tabernacle. One part of their service was to carry fire with incense on it in their censers before the Lord. No doubt they had performed this service properly many times. But in the particular time mentioned in verse one of this chapter, 10, we read of "strange fire" being offered by them, resulting in their death. From subsequent verses we are led to believe they may have been in an intoxicated condition.

It hardly seems possible that men could occupy places of sacred ministry and dare to be inebriated and false. Yet the Bible is full of warning and condemnation relative to the false prophet and priest—leaders. Here we have the command to the priests against drunkenness. Such acts destroy their example. Their words can have no moral or religious weight for they are law breakers and do not themselves respect the will of the Lord. Such become public enemies instead of blessings. Some will say here, "then this refers particularly to priests and ministers." Yes—but in a larger sense, aren't we all priests and ministers?

We have been applying these studies of the national life of Israel to our own day. Some things are of vast importance in a nation. Education must have consideration, the care of the old and poor, and sick must be looked after. Individual and property rights must be cared for and equally important a nation must look after the morals of its people. Today we hear a great deal about personal rights, but we must not forget that personal rights of anyone end where those of another begin.

In the "social" approach to the liquor problem our first consideration would be the individual. But we all know the effect upon individuals. The mention of the individual brings to every one of our minds the "town drunkard." Need more be said? If the enemies of good government sold a concoction for money, that poisoned our stock, we would be up in arms. But when a concoction is made that poisons our boys and girls, husbands and wives we bury our heads in the sands.

What about drunkenness from the social angle as regards the family? We have yet to hear of one single home where the use of alcohol has brought real harmony, joy and happiness. The drunkard's family is usually the poorest dressed and poorest housed. True there are wealthy imbibers but Solomon says the drunkard shall come to poverty—and most of them have already arrived, morally, physically, or spiritually—if not yet financially.

We hear much about the "social" glass—which is just a wedge to open the door for the entrance of drunkenness and all its attending vice and evils whether we realize it or not. There is an old story of a camel who came to an inn door one cold night and asked admittance. "No," said the innkeeper, "you would ruin and upset my house." But the camel pleaded, "No, I will not. The weather is cold, won't you just let me put my nose in the door?" The innkeeper did and before his back was turned the whole camel was inside the inn.

What of the social angle in the community life of a nation? A glance at your daily paper will answer this question. Read the headlines, the police report and the court notes. If that is not sufficient, take a trip to our jails, institutions and hospitals and see how alcohol affects others.

And now back to our starting point in the cycle, the nation. I read recently of the accumulation of $9,000,000,000 in gold being placed in the underground deposit at Fort Knox, Ky. This thick-walled building is surrounded by armed forces of men and the most deadly weapons of science. Four machine gun "nests" are on the outer walls with guards on 24-hour duty. Elaborate electric devices aid in guarding the hoard of gold. Mirrors are so arranged that guards may see at all times what is taking place throughout the grounds. Two water-filled moats encircle the structure and are provided with a device to permit flooding of underground vaults in time of danger. In addition to the original cost of $524,000 the force of guards and other employees number 1300—which is no small payroll.

Our $11,700,000,000 in gold almost makes Uncle Sam a King Midas. (In passing, it seems queer how we dig the gold out of the earth at great expense and then put it back into the earth, and guard it at great expense.)

On Jan. 13, this year, when a special 7-car train transported gold to this vault from the Philadelphia mint, a thousand soldiers were stationed along the one-mile road from the train to the deposit. On April 3 in a shipment of $150,000,000 in gold bullion, 50 trucks rolled swiftly through the night from the assay office to the vault. Twenty-five infantry men with rifles and fixed bayonets guarded the gold at the station. Each convoy of gold trucks was guarded by 20 policemen on motorcycles, two police radio cars, and a detective squad car besides armed federal guards.

Yes, we are guarding our gold, but what about our greatest treasure—the youth of America? We cannot, of course, value our girls and boys at so much an ounce as we do gold. But we must gauge their value by their character; by the benefit we expect them to be to the nation when grown.

Dr. Haven Emerson, M. D., says: Alcohol is a depressant, habit-forming drug, a protoplasmic poison, a depressant with toxic effects. It causes disease: psychosis, multiple neuritis, cirrhosis of the liver. It causes death from acute and chronic poisoning, reduces resistance to infection. Alcohol increases liability to accidents, and delays recovery. It reduces endurance, accuracy and rapidity of muscular action. It decreases expectation of life, reduces chance and survival of offspring.

Yes, all this, and more. It makes poor citizens out of good ones. Shall our nation protect our gold bullion and allow our youth to be corrupted? The strength and the real wealth of civilization is not in gold but in the character of its young men and women.

For what shall it profit a nation if it hoard all the gold and neglect and lose our young men and women who are the true "Gold of our land."

CONSCIENCE FUND... Striking is the contrast in citizenship ethics displayed by the Americans recently exposed for their tax dodging methods as compared to the spirit shown by "Conscience Fund" contributors.

Up to May 31, 1937, a total of $630,002.09 had been received by the U. S. treasury department for the "Conscience Fund." All money so received is added to the treasury's general fund.

A lump sum of $30,000 received a while back is the largest single amount contributed. One of the smallest contributions was sent with the following letter:

"Dear President:
"I am in a dreadful state of mind and I thought I would write and tell you all. About two years ago I used two postage stamps that had been used before on letters, perhaps more than two stamps, but I can only remember doing it twice. I did not realize what I had done until lately. My mind is completely turned on the subject and I think of it night and day. Now dear President, will you please forgive me and I promise I will never do it again. Enclosed find cost of three stamps. "From One of Your Subjects."

HIS PROFESSION
Challapin, in addition to being the prince of singers, is also a prince of story-tellers, and is never so happy as when relating an anecdote against himself. Here is a favorite of his:

One evening, at the height of his fame, he was being driven to the Imperial Opera House in old-time St. Petersburg, and the cabbie entered into an animated conversation with his fare, discussing such topics as he thought might be of interest. At length, after a short respite, he asked:

"What, now, is your profession, sir?"

"I sing," replied Challapin. The cabbie flicked his whip impatiently.

"Oh," he replied, "I do a bit of that myself. But I wouldn't call it a profession. What'd'you do for a living?"—Edinburgh Dispatch.
